Report of the auditors to the members of Shenzhen Textile (Holdings) Co., Ltd.

(Incorporated in the People's Republic of China with limited liability by shares)

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Shenzhen Textile (Holdings) Co., Ltd., which comprise the balance sheet as at December 31, 2006, and the income statement, statement of changes in equity and cash flow statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards. This responsibility includes: designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Shenzhen Textile (Holdings) Co., Ltd. as of December 31, 2006, and of its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

According to the Company's Articles of Association and the PRC's relevant laws and policies as well as after making up the Company's loss, the Company is required to make a transfer at the rate of 10% from the profit after taxation, determined in accordance with the PRC Accounting Standards, of the Company to the statutory surplus reserve until the reserve balance has reached 50% of the registered capital of the Company. In addition, according to the paper [Cai Zhi (2006) No. 67] issued by the Ministry of Finance on March 15, 2006, the Company's statutory public welfare fund balance as at December 31, 2005 was transferred to statutory surplus reserve. As such, there shall be no need to make appropriations to the statutory public welfare fund.

The capital reserve and the statutory surplus reserve may be applied only for the following purposes :

- i may be used to make up loss; and
- ii may be converted into share capital by the issue of new shares to shareholders in proportion to their existing shareholdings or by increasing the par value of the shares currently held by them, but when the statutory surplus reserve is converted into share capital, the amount remaining in the reserve shall be no less than 25% of the newly increased registered capital.

The directors do not recommend the payment of final dividend (2005 - RMB0.05 per share) to the shareholders.

Prior to making up the Company's loss and the relevant appropriations to the statutory surplus reserve, no dividend shall be payable.

Shenzhen Textile (Holdings) Co., Ltd.

Notes to the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006

1. Corporate information

Shenzhen Textile (Holdings) Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) is established in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) as a joint stock limited company. The ultimate holding company of the Company is Shenzhen Investment Holdings Company Limited, a state owned enterprise established in the PRC. The principal activity of the Company is investment holding and the principal activities of the subsidiaries are set out in note 3.

2. Basis of presentation of the financial statements

In the current year, the Group has adopted all of the new and revised International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”), International Accounting Standards (“IAS”) and Interpretations (“Int.”) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (the “IASB”) and the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (the “IFRIC”) of the IASB.

The Group has newly adopted the following new and amended IAS and Int. issued by IFRIC in the financial statements for the current year :

IAS 21	Amendment - The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates
IAS 39	Amendment - Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement
IFRIC - Int. 4	Determining whether an Arrangement Contains a Lease

The adoption of the above new IAS and Int. does not have any financial impact on the Group’s financial statements for the years presented.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the IFRS. These accounting standards differ from those used in the preparation of the PRC statutory financial statements, which are prepared in accordance with the PRC Accounting Standards. To conform to IFRS, adjustments have been made to the PRC statutory financial statements. Details of the impact of such adjustments on the net asset value as at December 31, 2006 and on the operating results for the year then ended are included in notes 35 and 36 to the financial statements. In addition, the financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention except for certain fixed asset items that are recorded at valuation less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

3. Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and the entities (including special purpose entities) controlled by the Company (its subsidiaries). Control is achieved where the Company has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

The results of subsidiaries acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated income statement from the effective date of acquisition or up to the effective date of disposal, as appropriate.

Shenzhen Textile (Holdings) Co., Ltd.

(cont'd)

3. Basis of consolidation (cont'd)

Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with those used by other members of the Group.

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and of its subsidiaries (the “Group”) made up to December 31 each year. All significant intra-group transactions, balances, income and expenses are eliminated on consolidation.

Minority interests in the net assets of consolidated subsidiaries are identified separately from the Group’s equity therein. Minority interests consist of the amount of those interests at the date of the original business combination and the minority’s share of changes in equity since the date of the combination. Losses applicable to the minority in excess of the minority’s interest in the subsidiary’s equity are allocated against the interests of the Group except to the extent that the minority has a binding obligation and is able to make an additional investment to cover the losses.

(a) Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is a company in which the Company holds, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the equity interest as a long-term investment or has the power to cast the majority of votes at meetings of the board of directors/management committee. As at December 31, 2006, the Company held the following subsidiaries :

i) Subsidiaries consolidated

Company name	Place of establishment/ operation	Effective equity held by the Group		Principal activities

Shenzhen Feng Sheng Garments Co., Ltd.	PRC	100%	100%	Manufacturing of clothing
Shenzhen Fenghua Zhi Dai Factory Co., Ltd.	PRC	75%	75%	Manufacturing of fasteners

In the opinion of the directors, the above unconsolidated subsidiaries have ceased the business, are under liquidation or are unable to transfer funds to the parent because of the long-term restrictions over their operations. As their operating results and net assets have no significant effect on the Group as a whole, they have not been included in the consolidation. After taking into consideration the expected impairment loss, the investments in above companies are accounted for at cost less provision for diminution in value that is other than temporary.

(b) Associates

An associate is a company, not being a subsidiary, in which the Company holds, directly or indirectly, not less than 20% and not more than 50% equity interest as a long-term investment and is able to exercise significant influence on this company. The associates held by the Company as at December 31, 2006 are shown in note 19 to the financial statements. Except for the associates that are shown in note 20 to the financial statements, investments in associates are accounted for by the Group using the equity method of accounting.

Shenzhen Textile (Holdings) Co., Ltd.

Notes to the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006

4. Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized when it is probable that the benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be measured reliably, with bases as follows :

Sales of goods : Sales of goods are recognized when goods are delivered and title has passed to customers.

Rental income : Rental income from investment properties is recognized when the rental is due and receivable.

Hotel income : Income from hotel services is recognized when services are rendered.

Interest income : Interest income is accrued on a time proportion basis by reference to the principal outstanding and at the interest rate applicable.

Dividend income : Dividend income from investments is recognized when the shareholders' right to receive payment has been established.

Subsidy income : Subsidy is recognized when the right to receive payment has been established.

(b) Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

Such assets are stated at cost/valuation less accumulated depreciation. The cost of an asset comprises its purchase price and any directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Expenditures incurred after the assets have been put into operation, such as repairs and maintenance and overhaul costs, are charged to the consolidated income statement in the period in which they are incurred. In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditures have resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of the assets, the expenditures are capitalized as an additional cost of the assets.

When assets are sold or retired, their cost/valuation and accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the accounts and any profit or loss resulting from their disposal is included in the consolidated income statement.

Depreciation is provided to write off the cost/valuation of depreciable assets, after taking into account of their estimated residual values, over their estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis.

Shenzhen Textile (Holdings) Co., Ltd.

(cont'd)

4. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(b) Property, plant and equipment and depreciation (cont'd)

Their estimated useful lives are as follows :

Buildings	35 to 40 years
Leasehold improvements	5 years
Plant and machinery	10 to 14 years
Office equipment	8 years
Transport equipment	8 years

Certain above assets are stated at valuation. Independent valuation is performed periodically with the last valuation performed in 1993. The directors review the carrying value of these assets periodically and adjustment will be made where in the directors' opinion there has been a material change in value.

Any increase in valuation is credited to the property revaluation reserve; any decrease is first offset against an increase on earlier valuation in respect of the same property and is thereafter charged to operating result.

Upon the disposal of revalued property, the relevant portion of the revaluation surplus realized in respect of previous valuation is released from the property valuation surplus as part of the profit or loss on disposal of such property.

(c) Investment properties

Investment properties are interests in land and buildings that are held for rental purposes or for their long-term investment potential. In 1993, certain investment properties had been revalued. The directors review their carrying value periodically. Adjustment is made where in the directors' opinion there has been a material change in their fair value. The profit or loss arising from the change in the fair value of the relevant investment properties is dealt with in the consolidated income statement in the period in which it arises.

(d) Land use rights

The cost of land use rights is amortized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(e) Construction-in-progress

Construction-in-progress represents the factory and office buildings under construction and is stated at cost. This includes costs of construction, machinery and furniture as well as interest charges and exchange differences arising from borrowings that are used to finance the construction during the construction period. No depreciation is provided on construction-in-progress prior to its completion. However, for construction-in-progress that is pending for further process and is functionally or technologically obsolete, its carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount by reference to the impairment loss.

4. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(f) Goodwill

Goodwill arising on the acquisition of a subsidiary or an associate represents the excess of the cost of acquisition over the Group's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities of the subsidiary or associate recognized at the date of acquisition. Goodwill is initially recognized as an asset at cost and is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Cash-generating units to which goodwill has been allocated are tested for impairment annually, or more frequently when there is an indication that the unit may be impaired. If the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than the carrying amount of the unit, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit pro-rata on the basis of the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. An impairment loss recognized for goodwill is not reversed in a subsequent period.

On disposal of a subsidiary or an associate, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the profit or loss on disposal.

(g) Intangible assets

The cost of trademark and technical know-how is amortized on a straight-line basis over their expected useful lives.

(h) Investments

Investments are recognized and derecognized on a trade date basis where the purchase or sale of an investment is under a contract whose terms require delivery of the investment within the timeframe established by the market concerned, and are initially measured at fair value, plus directly attributable transaction costs.

At subsequent reporting dates, debt securities that the Group has the expressed intention and ability to hold to maturity (held-to-maturity debt securities) are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method, less any impairment loss recognized to reflect irrecoverable amounts. An impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss when there is objective evidence that the asset is impaired, and is measured as the difference between the investment's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition. Impairment losses are reversed in subsequent periods when an increase in the investment's recoverable amount can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, subject to the restriction that the carrying amount of the investment at the date the impairment is reversed shall not exceed what the amortized cost would have been had the impairment not been recognized.

(h) Investments (cont'd)

Investments other than held-to-maturity debt securities are classified as either investments held for trading or as available-for-sale, and are measured at subsequent reporting dates at fair value. Where securities are held for trading purposes, gains and losses arising from changes in fair value are included in profit or loss for the period. For available-for-sale investments, gains and losses arising from changes in fair value are recognized directly in equity, until the security is disposed of or is determined to be impaired, at which time the cumulative gain or loss previously recognized in equity is included in the profit or loss for the period. Impairment losses recognized in profit or loss for equity investments classified as available-for-sale are not subsequently reversed through profit or loss. Impairment losses recognized in profit or loss for debt instruments classified as available-for-sale are subsequently reversed if an increase in the fair value of the instrument can be objectively related to an event occurring after the recognition of the impairment loss.

Other unlisted long-term investments with no reference to fair value are stated at cost less provision for diminution in value that is other than temporary.

(i) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost, calculated on the weighted average basis, comprises direct materials, direct labour and an attributable proportion of production overheads. Net realizable value is determined on the basis of estimated selling prices less further costs expected to be incurred to completion and the related selling and distribution expenses.

(j) Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are measured at initial recognition at fair value, and are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. Appropriate allowances for estimated irrecoverable amounts are recognized in profit or loss when there is objective evidence that the asset is impaired. The allowance recognized is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition.

(k) Accounts payable

Accounts payable are initially measured at fair value, and are subsequently measured at amortized cost, using the effective interest rate method.

(l) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

4. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(m) Bank borrowings

Interest-bearing bank loans and overdrafts are initially measured at fair value, and are subsequently measured at amortized cost, using the effective interest rate method. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the settlement or redemption of borrowings is recognized over the term of the borrowings in accordance with the Group's accounting policy for borrowing costs.

(n) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalization. All other borrowing costs are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

(o) Retirement benefit costs

Payments to defined contribution retirement benefit plans are charged as an expense as they fall due. Payments made to state-managed retirement benefit schemes are dealt with as payments to defined contribution plans where the Group's obligations under the plans are equivalent to those arising in a defined contribution retirement benefit plan.

(p) Foreign currency conversion

The financial statements are expressed in Renminbi. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated at the rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated at the rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Exchange differences that are attributable to the translation of foreign currency borrowings for the purpose of financing the construction of factory and office buildings, plant and machinery and other major fixed assets for periods prior to their being in a condition to enter into services are included in the cost of the fixed assets concerned. Other exchange differences are dealt with in the consolidated income statement.

(q) Leasing

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

4. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(q) Leasing (cont'd)

i) The Group as lessor

Amounts due from lessees under finance leases are recorded as receivables at the amount of the Group's net investment in the leases. Finance lease income is allocated to accounting periods so as to reflect a constant periodic rate of return on the Group's net investment outstanding in respect of the leases.

Rental income from operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

ii) The Group as lessee

Assets held under finance leases are recognized as assets of the Group at their fair value at the inception of the lease or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. The corresponding liability to the lessor is included in the balance sheet as a finance lease obligation. Lease payments are apportioned between finance charges and reduction of the lease obligation so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are charged to profit or loss, unless they are directly attributable to qualifying assets, in which case they are capitalized in accordance with the Group's general policy on borrowing costs.

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Benefits received and receivable as an incentive to enter into an operating lease are also spread on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(r) Impairment loss

At each balance sheet date, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any. Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

If the recoverable amount of an asset is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount. Any impairment loss arising is recognized as an expense immediately.

A reversal of impairment loss is limited to the asset's carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized in prior years. Reversals of impairment loss are credited to the income statement in the year in which the reversals are recognized.

4. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

(s) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present obligation as a result of a past event, and it is probable that the Group will be required to settle that obligation. Provisions are measured at the directors' best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date, and are discounted to present value where the effect is material.

(t) Income tax

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from net profit as reported in the income statement because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax is the tax expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit, and is accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognized for all taxable temporary differences and deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Such assets and liabilities are not recognized if the temporary difference arises from goodwill (or negative goodwill) or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the tax profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries and associates, and interests in joint ventures, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed as at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset realized. Deferred tax is charged or credited in the income statement, except when it relates to items charged or credited directly to equity, in which case the deferred tax is also dealt with in equity.

Tax assets and liabilities are offset when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Group intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

20. Other investments (cont'd)

As at December 31, 2006, the details of the subsidiaries not consolidated are listed out as follows :

Company name	Place of establishment/ operation	Effective equity held by the Group		Principal activities
		2006	2005
Darwin International Co., Ltd.	Hong Kong	100%	100%	Import and export
Shenzhen Feng Sheng Garments Co., Ltd.	PRC	100%	100%	Manufacturing of clothing
Shenzhen Fenghua Zhi Dai Factory Co., Ltd.	PRC	75%	75%	Manufacturing of fasteners

In the opinion of the directors, the above unconsolidated subsidiaries have ceased the business, are under liquidation or are unable to transfer funds to the parent because of the long-term restrictions over their operations. As their operating results and net assets have no significant effect on the Group as a whole, they have not been included in the consolidation. After taking into consideration the expected impairment loss, the investments in above companies are accounted for at cost less provision for diminution in value that is other than temporary.

Associates not accounted for by the Group using the equity method of accounting are listed out as follows :

Company name	Place of establishment/ operation	Effective equity held by the Group		Principal activities
		2006	2005
Shenzhen Kunhwa Dyeing Co., Ltd.	PRC	45%	45%	Dyeing

Shenzhen Xin Fang Textile Factory Co., Ltd.	PRC	20%	20%	Textile products
Shenzhen Xiang Jiang Leather Product Co., Ltd.	PRC	20%	20%	Leather products

As the Group cannot exercise significant influence on the above companies, they are not accounted for by the equity method of accounting. After taking into consideration the expected impairment loss, investments in above companies are accounted for at cost less provision for diminution in value that is other than temporary.

33. Financial instruments (cont'd)

(b) Interest rate risk

Bank loans are arranged at floating rates, thus exposing the Group to cash flow interest rate risk.

(c) Fair value

The fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities is not materially different from their carrying amount.

The carrying value of short-term borrowings is estimated to approximate its fair value based on the borrowing terms and rates of similar loans.

The fair value of long-term borrowings is estimated, by applying discounted cash flow method using the market interest rates for similar financial instruments, to approximate its carrying value.

Fair value estimates are made at a specific point in time and based on relevant market information and information about the financial instruments. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties on matters of significant judgment, and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

34. Ultimate holding company
